

2024: A GAME CHANGER FOR EMERGING MARKETS

15/02/2024

CARMIGNAC, A PIONEER IN EMERGING MARKETS

Since its creation in 1989, Carmignac has always had a strong conviction in emerging markets. Over the years, Carmignac has built up a solid expertise in the emerging universe. For us, emerging markets are a source of performance, a source of diversification but also a way to sustainably contribute to environment and society. Leveraging this long-term expertise, Carmignac launched its first strategy dedicated to emerging market equity in 1997.

WHY INVEST IN FP CARMIGNAC EMERGING MARKETS?

Over the past years, emerging markets have underperformed their developed market peers. The weakness of the Chinese economy, the ongoing geopolitical tensions and the US elections are also a source of concern for this asset class.

However, we see attractive opportunities among the beneficiaries of this new geopolitical order, notably in Latin America and South-East Asia. In 2024, bottom-up stock selection will be key to navigate the volatile markets and unearth the best opportunities in this undervalued emerging markets universe. FP Carmignac Emerging Markets is well positioned to capture this growth potential of emerging markets.

Listen to Xavier Hovasse, Head of Emerging Equities & Fund Manager, reveal his convictions and views on emerging markets for 2024.
